Do You Remember?

(See Page 8 for July's Answer).

Do You Remember the private earnings of the freshmen class of 77? If so, let us know. We can't supply the year or the names but who could resist running a picture of a carry with a fringe on top?

GOOD MEMORIES are plentiful among our alumni and the last DO YOU REMEMBER? proposed several riddles. We appreciate the replies and enjoy hearing from you as well as getting a file picture identified.

Over 1,300 Students Register For Classes

Over 1,300 students have registered for Gardner-Webb's historic 1969-70 school year. Of this number, 241 are members of the junior class—the school's first as it moves toward eventual four year status in 1970-71.

Dr. Eugene Poston, president, is seeing his Decade of Advance plan, announced in 1951, coming true as schedule and web strive in the way of physical facilities and growth of the faculty and administration.

Ninety-five professors and administrators, plus a large crop of staff members, are on hand for the important year. This number has grown steadily during the past three years and will possibly level off now as enrollment remains around the 1,300 figure for the next few years.

Students arrived throughout the period of August 28-29 in preparation for registration on August 28-29. Organizational leaders and football players were first to arrive followed by freshmen and transfer students who are required to take part in orientation programs.

Most of the juniors are returning students although some do come from other colleges or are returning to college after an absence of a few years.

Most of these students are boarding on campus or in community housing (1,000) and there are 300 commuting students. Classes began September 1 in what is expected to be Gardner-Webb's greatest year since its founding in 1925.

James Randolph (Randy) Elrod has assumed the position of Director of Alumni Activities at Gardner-Webb College. These duties include the editing of THE WEB.

Mr. Elrod is a 1961 graduate of Gardner-Webb College and known many of the college's graduates over a wide region. He received the B.A. Degree from Wake Forest University and the B.D. Degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. From July of 1968 until June of 1969 he worked as a chaplain intern at the N. C. Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem studying pastoral care and counseling.

A veteran of the U. S. Air Force, Elrod received administrative training at Warren Air Force Base in Wyoming and was stationed for nearly two years in Hawaii and also at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois. He was a staff sergeant at discharge.

His work experience includes pastorate at English and Swanaport Baptist churches while a student pastor; a year as a teacher-coach at Lounsbury High School (N. C.); a pastorate at Black Branch Baptist Church of Chesapeake, Va. and while at the N. C. Baptist Hospital he served as pastor of the Center Grove church of Clemmons.

WITH THE ALUMNI

University of North Carolina at Charlotte on June 1. He and his wife, Judy, live in Charlotte.

Rhea Mae Kelly '66 joined the U. S. Air Force in February, 1969. She received her basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, and went to tech school in Ft. Belvoir, Illinois, where she trained to be an Information Specialist with emphasis on Journalism. Her address is: Ann Rhea Kelly AAM824 1909, CMR NO. 1, Box 688, Wainwright AFB, Miss., 39202.

Private David Wagner '68 and Kathy Wagner '68, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Wagner of Winston-Salem, have completed their secret training with the U. S. Marine Corps at Parris Island, S. C., and are presently taking advanced training at Camp Lejeune.

Jerry Simpson '69 of Greensboro is working as a member of the Apostles Team in North Carolina Baptist Churches this summer. The Apostles Team, made up of four college students, is sent to churches across the state in an attempt to find creative approaches to meaningful Christian experience.

Mike Stewart '69 has been named Summer Youth Director for Garland Baptist Church in Wadesboro. Miss Stewart, who did Summer Missionary work in New Jersey last year, plans to major in communications at Wake Forest University this fall.

Edward Brown '70, photographer, recently won first place in the "Sequence" category in the Annual Southern Short Course in News Photography.

Jack B. Spaulsner Jr. '63 has received the Doctor of Medicine degree from the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem. He began internship training in internal medicine on July 1, at the Eugene Talmadge Memorial Hospital, Augusta.

Hey! You're A Number . . .

. . . But We Still Love You

Now he is from Alliance County, Burlington, with a zip 27215, a male, at Gardner-Webb in 1968, from the 54th state (N. C.) of 50, and a new graduate. Linda McGilford, former student who is now making the Report Program Generator course at IBM in Atlanta, Ga., is credited with typing most of this data into the 28,000 cards.

Cleveland County is the one leading in GW alumni and records show 1,384 people of the county have attended the college. All 50 states, the District of Columbia and 19 foreign nations are represented in the files.

A major use of this information will be for printed address labels for THE WEB, monthly alumni publication and for gathering information for alumni chapter meetings.

Statistics in alumni work know full well Americans are a people "use the more" for around 20 to 30 changes in address must be made every week or so.

If the alumni start hawking they are just a number—they will be right.

Gardner-Webb College, taking full advantage of modern data processing equipment, has an entire 7,500 alumni names neatly packed into eight file drawers.

The more than 28,000 cards allow the department to make alumni more than a number through rapid processing of lists to find names, addresses, class dates, zip codes, and other information about alumni.

Data processing department head Wallace Carpenter and his assistant, Keith Griggs, have for several years handled all processing cards on the entire student body as to grades, etc. Now they can keep track of them after they leave college.

Jack Lee Anthony of Burlington, Miss. 000010, has the honor of being first in the bulky file. If you can read the code, you know he is from Alliance County, Burlington, with a zip 27215, a male, at Gardner-Webb in 1968, from the 54th state (N. C.) of 50, and a new graduate. Tone And Character Committee Makes Recommendations For College

The Tone and Character Committee of the Board of Advisors made several important recommendations in a July 10 meeting at the campus.

The committee, headed by Charles Alexander of Kings Mountain has called for the reorganization of an area between Lenoir-Yahara and Mauney Hill residences for men. Aim of this is to provide an area for students to relax, study, meet parents and friends and have meetings without disturbing other students in their rooms.

In other recommendations the committee called for Spring revival in 1971 as the Ernest W. Spangler Memorial Sunday. This would be a follow up of the last Crusade led by Rev. Orville Wilson of the Billy Graham Evangelical Association.

William Wallace of Charlotte moved that all entertainment on the campus be in keeping with the stated Christian purpose of the college. This was prompted by a discussion concerning the change of appearance and actions of certain entertainers between the date of contact by Gardner-Webb College officials and the date they actually arrive on campus. The motion passed.

A Vocational Emphasis Week was set for Jan. 19-23, 1971 on a motion by John Nell of Charlotte. Nell and Joe Gilroy of Mooreville desired the emphasis to allow business and industry to send representatives to the campus to acquaint students with various opportunities as they plan their careers.

The cool, "slutty" basketball player who, more than any other individual, earned Gardner-Webb College its first national basketball tournament, was killed in an early morning automobile accident August 13 in Birmingham, Ala.

Karl Neilson, 65, 185 pounds forward for the Gardner-Webb teams of 1966-67 and 1967-68, died instantly in a one-car accident. He was a passenger in the vehicle which overturned on a Birmingham city street, rolled over several times, and then hit a utility pole.

A rising senior at Sanford University where he had led that school's team in scoring as a junior, Neilson was showing bright promise for his final year of college basketball.

A memorial scholarship fund has been started in Neilson's memory. Please send your contribution to college if you desire to assist the Boiling Club in this project.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. August 16 in the First Presbyterian Church of Miami Springs, Fla. Neilson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Neilson of 366 Linwood Drive, Miami Springs.

DO YOU REMEMBER? (July Issue)

"Hey rene! You looked terrible."

You know with reactions such as that the use of these old pictures could get WEB suffers killed. Mrs. John Beam (Sara Nell Dill) of Gastonia, told her class agent (Genevieve Gantt) "I don't feel that old but my family was around at the picture." It was her child who reacted to the informal pose—curlers and all.

She, Mrs. Bernice Traylor of Boiling Springs, Mrs. Mack Hamrick of Boiling Springs and Sylvia Peacock of Charlotte sent photographs of the 1941-42 Adhucen-Rhomanus Society.

We feel that Mrs. Beam's letter to Mrs. Gantt was so sincere and free that we want to print excerpts. She said, "During the years I have followed with much interest the growth of our school. Gene Peacock has done such a marvellous work there. You can tell all of the expansion has been a result of much prayer, planning, and hard work. The school has been such a blessing to so many young people through the years."

She went on to say that since 19 years of teaching the fourth grade in Lowell that she will retire and give more time to her family, including a third grader (Kathryn). Her husband is Dean of Students at Belmont Abbey College.
